RAILROADS ARE IN NEED OF REVENUE

Rates Have Been Stationary in United States While Roads Have Been Put to Extra Expense.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—An explanation of the petitions for rate increases filed in Washington Tuesday, was given here by Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and chairman of the committee of railroad presidents appointed to petition the interstate commerce commission, who was here Tuesday.

"Railroad rates have practically been stationary in the United States for some time," he said. "The proposed increase is moderate and will bear but lightly on any particular unit of traffic. If the railroads are to have the necessary funds with which to provide the transportation facilities absolutely required for the proper development of this country, this increase in rates is necessary."

"Railroads gross earnings have shown a considerable increase since the last hearing of the interstate commerce commission in 1910 due to the increased business handled. This increased business could not have been moved except for extra expenditures for equipment provided. This has been done through the expenditures of large amounts of additional capital, which greatly added to the charges the railroads must pay. This, the greatly increased rates of pay, as well as the increase in other expenses and taxes has seriously reduced the return on the capital invested, and so lessened the margin on capital as to render it difficult to see how investors can be induced to provide the capital necessary to keep the transportation facilities up to requirements."

FOSS TO MAKE RACE FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP

Prevents Fading of Colored Clothes

Borax in the Water Will Prevent Colored Clothes from Fading.

If you use Borax in the laundry your clothes are never injured or faded. They will come from the washing as beautiful and as fresh as the day you bought them.

Colored clothes will have their original color, and white clothes will be beautiful and white. Borax will not injure even the finest of fabrics like soap powders and lye and ash compounds do. Besides, Borax makes washing simple and easy. Add three heaping tablespoons of Borax to every tub of water. It softens the water and very little soap is required. In fact, in the laundry it is the Borax with the soap that does the work. Be sure you ask for the original 20-Mule Team Borax. At all dealers, in 10c and 50c packages. The Pacific Coast Borax Co., 1550 McCormick Building, Chicago, will send a booklet, "The Magic Crystal," telling the many uses of Borax in the home to any one who will send for it.

GIRL FOUND WITH HER SKULL CRUSHED

Police Think It Suicide But Fail to Find Bullet Wound on Body.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Oct. 15.—What at first appeared to be a suicide in a local boarding house of Miss Dorothy Haug, of Knoxville, Tenn., was definitely established Tuesday to have been a murder and the local authorities have begun a search for the slayer to whose identity they have no clue. T. W. Duane, a young lodger at the same boarding house, was detained for a time Tuesday in connection with the murder, but later released.

The girl's skull had been crushed and although a revolver, with one chamber empty, lay beside her body when it was found Monday morning, physicians declared she had suffered no bullet wound and no bullet had found lodgment anywhere in the room she occupied.

PROPOSE CHANGES IN EPISCOPAL CHURCHES

May Group Dioceses Into Provinces Like the Church of England.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—One of the governing bodies—the house of deputies—of the Protestant Episcopal church of America, voted Tuesday at the triennial convention of the church, to group the dioceses into provinces of synods, eight in number, after the customs that prevail in the Episcopal church in England. To become effective this proposed legislation must receive the concurrence of the house of bishops. Protests against adopting the change were made on the floor of the convention. At previous conventions the question has come up only to be voted down. Three years ago a commission was appointed to consider it and Tuesday an affirmative report was presented. If the canon is enacted as proposed each group of dioceses and missions will have its own provincial council to the care of which will be committed mainly subjects of missions, religious education and local problems.

The militants attempted to rescue her but the police who were in large numbers succeeded in placing her in a taxicab and driving to Holloway jail. The meeting was abandoned in order to hold a protest demonstration outside the jail.

CURRENCY BILL GETS APPROVAL

Chamber of Commerce of United States Gives 303 For to 17 Votes Against the Measure.

DETROIT, Oct. 15.—By an overwhelming vote of 303 to 17, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, including over 400 chambers of commerce, boards of trade, commercial clubs and trade associations, has approved the Owens-Glass currency bill with seven recommendations for changes which in the opinion of the national chamber will render the measure more efficient for the purpose for which it is intended.

The decision of the national body was announced at noon Tuesday by the directors in session in this city after canvassing the referendum vote submitted to them, a few weeks ago by the banking and currency commission. The greater part of Tuesday was devoted to recreation by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, who are meeting here to discuss important legislative matters and business conditions in general.

As guests of the local board of commerce, the visitors were entertained at local manufacturing institutions throughout the afternoon and a banquet was given in their honor Tuesday night.

Miller HIGH LIFE The Champagne of Bottled Beer

The explanation is simple. HIGH LIFE is brewed with the idea of making it not only wholesome but inviting to the taste—it is the net result of years of development.

It is the one bottled beer you will like because its excellent quality is so noticeable compared with average beers.

Try HIGH LIFE once and you will freely admit it is the "finest tasting beer ever produced." Convince yourself—order a case today. On sale at leading Buffets, Dining Cars and Steamship lines.

We use light bottles exclusively for this high grade beer—common beer comes in dark bottles.

Brewed in Milwaukee by the Miller Brewing Co.

THE BROWN BOTTLE BOOMERANG

European authorities are being quoted by brown bottle advocates. Some of these quotations date as far back as 1882, since which time the world has progressed an inch or two. The opinion of these Europeans are considered of little value for the reason that European brewers are compelled to use brown bottles because foreign bottled beer does not compare in stability with American quality beer. High grade bottled beer has been perfected to the point where it can be safely stated without fear of contradiction that 90 per cent of the country's product is successfully handled in light bottles.

With this situation so definitely understood throughout the brewing industry, it is absurd to promote or make capital of the brown bottle having influence on the quality of the brew. A beer that is naturally immune from deterioration does not need the support of colored bottles to preserve its qualities. Observe the "moldy," "timeworn" dates of letters submitted on the brown bottle question and then bear in mind that Wahl-Henius, America's greatest authority has certified in support of the use of the light bottle for HIGH GRADE BEER as recently as November 12, 1912. Here is their letter:—

Chicago, November 12, 1912.

To our Clients:— Please take note that we have recently given our opinion to one of our clients as to the relative merits of the white and the brown bottle for beer, as follows:—

"Referring to your recent request for our opinion as to the relative merits of the white and the brown bottle for beer, we wish to say that the ONLY advantage of the brown bottle over the light bottle consists in the protection it affords against the influence of light. With the usual amount of light, so that with the usual temperature, they also become less sensitive to the influence of light, so that with the usual precautions no bad effect need be feared."

"FOR SUPERBLY EMPLOYED because it can more readily be inspected before being to insure thorough cleanliness, and because the finished package reveals at a glance whether the contents meet the requirements of the consumer as to color, clarity and freedom from sedimentation."

"Yours very truly,
"WAHL-HENIUS INSTITUTE OF FERMENTOLOGY."
